

I am Michele McKenzie, also known as “Good Trouble”.

I was raised in the Episcopal faith, having been baptized and confirmed at the Historic Saint Luke’s Episcopal Church in Washington, DC, where I also participated in the junior choir. Following the conclusion of my professional basketball career, I established my residence in Albuquerque. In 1996, I earned a Master of Arts in Therapeutic Recreation from the University of New Mexico (UNM). Subsequently, I served with the Department of Veterans Affairs until my retirement in 2018.

In 1999, I chose Saint Michael’s as my church home because of the warmth and friendliness shown to me by the parishioners, in other words, I felt welcomed. The service format was familiar, and the sermons and music ignited my faith, touched my spirit, and stimulated my hope through the church work being done. Since then, I married Linda McCreary (2017) during the 9:00, served on committees, twice on the vestry, and continued to sing in the choir during the 9:00 service.

My service as a delegate for Saint Michael’s allows me to represent the parishioners as a liaison between us and the higher church. As always, it would be my honor and privilege to fulfill my duties and be your voice.
